

INVALID FOUND DEAD ON ROOF

Body of John Nichols Discovered by Terrified Tenants of Adjacent Building Swinging from Clothes Pole.

The tenants on the top floor of the tenement at No. 504 East Twelfth street, while looking down on the roof of No. 500 to-day saw a man's body swinging from a clothes pole. A rope, one end of which had been made fast to a pole and the other wound around the man's neck, had made a pendulum of his body, and every puff of the wind carried it back and forth.

The janitor, J. Howie, of No. 500, was soon notified. The man went to the roof and there identified the body at once as that of John Nichols, who lived on the third floor with his wife and three sons. The janitor told Mrs. Nichols of her husband's death and she went with him to the roof.

Nichols was fifty-three years old and was deeply religious. For several years he had been unable to work on account of a physical infirmity, but his sons supported him in a home the surroundings of which were entirely pleasant. At 4 o'clock this morning Nichols arose and left his room. When he was not seen at breakfast time his wife felt worried and was about to institute a search when the janitor knocked at the door and asked her to accompany him to the roof. At the sight of the body Mrs. Nichols collapsed.

ENDED HIS LIFE WITH GAS TUBE

Manufacturer Rothstein, Apparently Prosperous and Happy, Kills Himself in Storeroom of His Business Place.

Morris Rothstein, a manufacturer of ladies' shirt waists at No. 55-57 East Eighth street, who lived at No. 2187 Bathgate avenue, Bronx, was found dead to-day in the storeroom of his place of business. A gas tube, one end of which had been fastened to a jet, was held between his set teeth. He had been dead for some hours.

Rothstein employed seventy-five men and women. Having several big orders to get out he asked them to work yesterday and most of them were in the store during the morning. When they left in the afternoon Rothstein remained behind to look up.

He then went into the storeroom and, after fastening the rubber tube to the gas jet and turning on the gas he lay on a big cutter's table. There his body was found. Rothstein apparently did a prosperous business. He leaves a widow and two children.

WOMAN MUST DIE ON THE GALLOWS.

The Pennsylvania Court Declined Against Mrs. Danz, Convicted of Husband's Murder.

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—The Supreme Court to-day by a vote of 4 to 3 decided that Mrs. Catherine Danz must hang for the murder of her husband.

DIED, UNIDENTIFIED.

Body of Man, Found in Epileptic Fit, Taken to Morgue.

The body of an unidentified man was taken from Gouverneur Hospital to-day to the Morgue to await identification. The man, suffering from what the physicians believe to have been an attack of epilepsy, was found early to-day in front of No. 128 Henry street by a citizen, who telephoned Police Headquarters. An ambulance was called and he was taken to the hospital, where he died a few hours later. The man was about fifty-five years old, brown eyes, dark hair and mustache, and was dressed in a suit of striped clothing of good material.

Kills Germs of Catarrh

Hyomel Goes to the Root of the Disease and Makes Astonishing Cures. Catarrh cannot be cured by the use of pills, liquid medicines and so-called systemics. Under such treatment the germs of the disease will still live in the air passages and increase and multiply. Hyomel is the only scientific and thorough way to cure catarrh. Killing the germs in the air passages it enters the blood with the oxygen, destroys the microbes in the blood and effectually drives from the system all traces of catarrhal poison.

Thousands of testimonials have been given as to the astonishing cures made by this remedy. Mrs. Le Rendu, 78 Western avenue, Cleveland, O., writes: "I believe Hyomel saved my life. I am better now than I have been in thirty years. Many doctors, both in England and France, treated me for catarrh, but I was not cured until I used Hyomel."

Probably the strongest evidence that can be offered as to the powers of Hyomel to cure Catarrh is the fact that Hegeman & Co. will agree to refund the money if you say Hyomel has not cured you. The complete Hyomel outfit costs but $1.00, consisting of an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomel to last several weeks. This will effect a cure in ordinary cases, but for chronic and deep-seated cases of catarrh longer use may be necessary, and then extra bottles of Hyomel can be obtained for 50c. ## comes a message to every woman who ever heard the word "BUTTERICK"

Announcement of one of the most radical moves in the history of paper patterns. A year ago we moved into our new building—the largest, most perfectly equipped manufacturing and publishing plant in the whole world. It was built to lessen the cost of our products by placing us in command of every known improvement in modern processes of manufacture. The building is so big, it has taken us a year to get settled in it. Now we are ready to give you the first one of the money-savings which our huge plant have made possible.

AFTER TO-DAY ALL BUTTERICK Patterns Reduced to 10c., 15c. and 20c.

No need to tell the millions of users of Butterick Patterns the world over what this means for them. The same Butterick quality—bettered—the same Butterick guaranty of up-to-dateness in fashions—the same Butterick perfection of fit—at a lessened cost to all of us!

THE DELINEATOR for May tells the story in detail—gives the season's new and tempting styles in unusual number: the latest Stocks and Collars; "The Making of a Housewife," told serially but each chapter complete in itself as a story-lesson to the young housekeeper; "Good Looks," which this month solves the problem of Superfluous Flesh; many interesting special articles for every member of the family and stories worth reading. All in all a full magazine—read it!
